ABOUT US

HELPING PEOPLE NAVIGATE
THE HARD PARTS OF LIFE

“We believe that when people are offered the right environment and the right support to grow, our entire community benefits.”

Mountain Plains Community Services Society of the North (MPCSSN) is a non-profit, charitable society governed by a volunteer Board of Directors.

Our organization has operated numerous diverse community and family-focused programs that are designed to address the unique needs of the Northwest region of Alberta since 1972. Currently, we offer a variety of services in partnership with Alberta Health Services and Alberta Human Services.

Mountain Plains CSSN is accredited by CARF International and is a member of the ALIGN Association of Community Services, as well as the Children’s Welfare League of Canada.

We partner with third-party agencies to provide the following social support programs:

Family and Youth:

- Aurora Group Care
- Horizon Group Care
- Lyra Supported Independent Living
- Solstice Integrated Wellness Center

Disability Services:

- Luna Support Homes
- Nova Support Homes
- Jade Support Home
- Amethyst Support Home
